

PARENTS... come eat, have some fun, & receive prizes at a LEARNING ABOUT EDUCATION CLINIC

Come ..  Strengthening .. Engaging .. Empowerment ..

How NEAT... is Bringing Tools to You to Navigate the Public School System...To bring all children a PREMIERE education

Offered by Jacquie Thomas~ Every Second Tuesday of each month during the 2008-2009 school year:
Please RSVP For ONE or All of the Following Clinics:

Date	Topic	Location	Time
October 14, 2008	Paid Supplemental Education Services	Hayden Heights Library	6:00-8:00 P.M.
November 11, 2008	First Steps/Conferences and Special Education	First Covenant Church	6:00-8:30 P.M.
December 9, 2008	How do I know my child's school fits (P.I.F. 01/09/09)	Hayden Heights Library	6:00-8:00 P.M.
January 13, 2009	Special Education and my Child	Hayden Heights Library	6:00-8:00 P.M.
February 10, 2009	What do you need to know about?	Hayden Heights Library	6:00-8:00 P.M.
March 2009	Low cost summer camps with academics	TBA	6:00-8:00 P.M.
April 2009	Resources and Information	TBA	6:00-8:00 P.M.
May 2009	TBA	TBA	6:00-8:00 P.M.

To RSVP and participate please contact one of the following:

Jacquelyn Thomas	651-285-7185	jaythom6299@comcast.net
Roxy Foster	651-442-8914	rfoster@pcamn.org
Victoria LaBerge	651-646-5497	vlaberge@visi.com
Zong Choua Thao ~ (Hmong)	651-771-5458	n/a
Web Site: stpaulneat.org

It is not only your fundamental right as a human being to participate in every decision that affects you and your child; it is also your obligation. We want to assist you in meeting your obligation (James Trice).

Saint Paul NEAT is a chapter of Circle of Parents®