

You are warmly invited to Come ...

Strengthening ... through Circle of Parents®

Engaging ... PARENTS

Empowerment ... through Learning About Education Clinics

What NEAT is doing!

Who Are We?

St. Paul Network of Education Actions Teams (NEAT) is a grassroots organization that took root in 1999, powered by volunteer parents, for the best interest of your child's education success.

What Are We Doing?

Starting in October 2008 and running throughout the 2008-09 school year we will offer the first and third Tuesday of the month "Let's Talk About It" Circle of Parents® the group decides on the topic and the third Tuesday of the month Learning About Education Clinics: Providing Tools to Navigate the Public School System.

How to Contact Us?

To participate and get locations and times please call one of the following:

Jacquelyn Thomas	651-285-7185	jaythom6299@comcast.net
Roxy Foster	651-442-8914	rfoster@pcamn.org
Victoria LeBarge	651-646-5497	vlaberge@visi.com
Zong Choua Thao ~ (Hmong)	651-771-5458	n/a

Web Site: stpaulneat.org

It is not only your fundamental right as a human being to participate in every decision that affects you and your child; it is also your obligation. We want to assist you in meeting your obligation (James Trice)